

August 18, 2004

Written by David Boyajian (dboyajian@costar.com)

Minado To Open in White Plains Plaza

Restaurant Leases 12,000 SF

Minado, a rapidly expanding Japanese seafood buffet restaurant chain, leased 12,000 square feet at 445 Hamilton Ave. in White Plains, NY. Minado, which features Japanese food and a high-end sushi buffet, operates additional locations in Manhattan; Parsippany, NJ; Little Ferry, NJ; Carle Place, NY; Atlanta, GA and Natick, MA.

The tenant will open its new eatery on the ground floor of the 320,688-square-foot office building by the end of the year. The Metropolitan Life Insurance owns the 15-story, Class-A property, which is a part of the White Plains Plaza complex.

Glenn Walsh, senior director, and associate Larry Ruggieri of Cushman & Wakefield represented MetLife.

Charles Chan of real estate brokerage firm Harvest International represented Minado.

This deal comes less than a month after Cushman & Wakefield reported that more than 60,000 square feet of lease deals had been signed at White Plains Plaza's 445 Hamilton Ave. and One North Broadway buildings.